knud ejler lögstrup s the ethical demand is the most original influential danish contribution to moral philosophy in this century this is the first time that the complete text has been available in english translation originally published in 1956 it has again become the subject of widespread interest in europe now read in the context of the whole of lögstrup s work the ethical demand marks a break not only with utilitarianism and with kantianism but also with kierkegaard s christian existentialism and with all forms of subjectivism yet lögstrup s project is not destructive rather it is a presentation of an alternative understanding of interpersonal life the ethical demand presupposes that all interaction between human beings involves a basic trust its content cannot be derived from any rule for lögstrup there is not christian morality and secular morality there is only human morality many of the details of the main character s life parallel s actual life events of the author the author earned an mba in finance served four years in the military and 14 years with the department of homeland security the motivation for the book arose when a jewish friend asked him to describe his feelings about the afterlife after that he wrote the book with inspiration for the story being the two great commandments from the bible as well as thoughts from the inescapable love of god by thomas talbott and finally a lifetime of experiences the author was highly inspired by a quote from the movie gladiator what we do in life echoes in eternity the book was intended to be more action romance than spiritual but as he experienced a spiritual awakening of his own the author s point of view of the world changed people would ask how are you doing and he would answer better than i deserve the author was dazzled at the extent of religious fervor in many communities but was all too keenly aware of the sadness and desperation brought about by generational poverty on the part of many and generational greed on the part of others he was also deeply saddened at the spread of godlessness in the secular world the author earnestly wants to produce an allegory showing a broken special ops soldier representing every broken man or woman within the reach of this book nevertheless making his way to heaven to experience the love of god how can such a man or any of us achieve eternity in heaven with the holy father when faced with all that we have done joe the special ops man was told by the archangels that ever since the fall of man in the garden of eden there had been a vicious struggle in the universe between god and the devil for the souls of the living the angels in heaven are tasked to assist the heavenly father in this struggle joe and other warriors were masters of the skills needed to help the heavenly father in this effort
